Join the fun: Beneteau Cup

Hosted by Royal Queensland Yacht Squadron, Queensland's Beneteau Cup will be held 26 and 27 October 2013.

The two divisions, Cruising and Performance, have separate start times but both will race passage races. Entries in this event are automatically entered in the French Yacht Challenge staged over the same weekend.

The event, sponsored by Lee Randall's Spirit Marine and open to Beneteau performance and cruising boats, will include some changes to this year's program.

"This year the first heat of the Beneteau Cup, which also includes the French Yacht Challenge, will as usual be a passage race, however, in a departure from previous years, the second day of the Beneteau Cup will be one passage race instead of two windward and return races," says Event manager Jane Virtu.

Not A Diamond.

Tony Kinsman and the crew aboard 'Blunderbuss' are back to defend their crown, and David and Linda Redfern aboard their First 40, 'Not A Diamond' are including the Queensland Beneteau Cup in their full season of competitive racing.

According to David, their dream is to one day complete the Rolex Sydney to Hobart, which they are considering for next year.

The Notice of Race for the event is posted on the Royal Queensland Yacht Squadron website.
